

THE PANTHER

Bob Venters

Marilyn,

My best old buddy. I just don't know what I would have done without you this past year. All the thrills, sorrow and heart aches we have shared and enough secret secrets to fill an encyclopedia. We have had some wonderful times and I'll never forget them. Remember all the times we've cried on each other's shoulder. It's a wonder we didn't flood Pikeville. I guess we will have to tough it out again this year (you know what I mean.) Always be good and God be with you. Anytime you want ^{me} to do anything for you. Just holler! Because I want to be as true a friend to you as you are to me.

Love,
Donna

To a very sweet and nice girl, I hope we will always be good friends.

Marilyn (Merlin)

Well this our eleventh year in this old school, and we've toughed every year out together. Remember the 5th grade with Miss Dutton and the "gold paint" you spilled all over your wool jumper those were the times weren't they? Boy those slumber parties were the wildest ever!! Truly Marilyn you're a living doll and the sweetest little ole PR a person could know. You and Gabby are a perfect couple and I know things will work out for those who make them. I'll always remember you no matter where we are in the following years. God Bless You Love
John Marvin

Marilyn,
You know I think you're a doll and everyone will tell you you are about the sweetest girl they know and I am no exception! I think we have always been friends and we always will be. I hope we'll always be the best of friends

Love & hugs

All the luck in the

Friday night. I know we are going to have a blast this year in cheerleading. Be good thing to you!

Bobby. You're a treasure. Be sure always. Love,

Marilyn,
you are a beautiful doll
and one of the sweetest I will always remember you. Good luck to both you and Bobby.
Love,
Conrad

Our World Is a Small World

Foreword

. . . late-ending summer days giving up in a panorama of glorious color . . . excited murmurings when your best friend is found in one of your classes . . . crispness in the night air as the mighty eleven fight their first battle . . . swinging dancers feeling the pulsating beat of rock 'n roll . . . books filled with concrete, hard to get into your head, harder to carry . . . turtle-paced Fridays . . . flying afternoons of cokes, bull-sessions, sought-after rides to town . . . dashing home to talk on the phone.

We are teen-agers moving into a rising crescendo of actions that make our world truly a TEEN AGE WORLD. In the adult years ahead as we look back to 1960 and 1961 for a pleasant memory or two, his book will release its captured dreams and it will fulfill its purpose.

We, in America, are facing a great challenge in our world of today. Each of us must be prepared to do all in our power toward improving the world in which we live.

Your High School experiences aid you in developing your potential as a useful, contributing citizen in a free society.

Guard your liberties carefully and keep your courage in facing the many adversities that will face you in the future. Courage and often personal sacrifice are qualities needed for the advancement of high ideals.

PIKEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS OF 1961

This picture was taken under one of the pink dogwoods which the class of 1961 planted when they were in the fourth grade. The children contributed the money and bought the trees which they planted in memory of Miss Patty Richmond and Mr. T. W. Oliver. Miss Richmond was first grade teacher and Mr. Oliver was Superintendent when the class of 1961 entered first grade.

Marilyn,

It seems just like yesterday to me that we were in grade school together. We have been going to school together for as long as I can remember. We have had some great times together, and have had our difficulties, but I wouldn't trade these years for the world. Now we are Jolly Juniors and I know these next two years will be the greatest. You are a doll, Marilyn and I love you! May God bless you.

Love,
