PIKEVILLE
ELEMENTARY
"THE JOURNEY BEGINS..."

AN ISLAND OF ACTIVITY

Each morning hundreds of kids shuffle into Pikeville Elementary School. Some arrive in eager anticipation and others in tears. However the day begins, by mid-morning every child is immersed in one activity or another. This year, KERA, Kentucky Education Reform Act, has allowed teachers to be innovative and enterprising within the classroom. It encourages the idea of teaching through student experience. The students are allowed the pleasure of simply sitting alone and enjoying a book. Emily Fields, pictured below, takes advantage of this new found freedom.

Writing is another very important part of KERA. At right, Chris Cunningham, Brandt Justice, and Corey Russel are engaged in their topic as they write.

Field trips and group activities are encouraged by KERA. Students in Lower Primary (pictured center right) participate in the weekly routine of taking flouride as a group. Even the worst things in life don't seem so bad when you do them with your friends.

Far right, students in Upper Primary eagerly leave school to take a field trip to Creekmore Mansion, a local historic landmark. Lower right, Samantha Davis can attest to the fact that every now and then a hug makes everything better.

For many kids, the day doesn't end when the final bell rings. Some stay late to participate in extracurricular activities. Below, the Cowboys, a Little League football team at PES, ride in the Homecoming parade.

Leaving The Dock

In the beginning...

Do you remember the day in late August when your Mom let go of your hand and she sent you off into a classroom filled with many other children with tears gushing from their eyes?

As the weeks go by, you realize the hand that you left at the door isn't really that important anymore. Instead, our friends become a big part of our lives, and school is the perfect place to meet them. Many fond memories are made in early childhood friendships. A true friend will be around for the bad times and the good times.

Sometimes there is a special bond between a mother and her child which is strengthened through school activities. (center left) Maria Shockey, a mother, enjoys watching her son, Tyler, eat the lunch she has prepared for him.

Sometimes the simple freedom of sitting in the floor and working in a group with your friends is a lasting memory. For Bethany Tiller, Kristen Greer, Jordan Charles, Brandon Bartley, Lindsey Akers, and Terri Lee Kinzer (lower left), the relaxed atmosphere that they are enjoying while they study allows them to create special bonds with each other.

When Joe Greg Stone (center) scooted into 1st grade the thought of venturing into the girls restroom would not have occurred to him. Now, a 6th grader, he not only thinks of it, but Kelly Cassady fights to keep him from doing so.

GIRLS

Headphones on, Claire Fish jazzes up computer class with a mischievous grin.

Home Alone? Michael Ray and Jessica Collier seem to be practicing playing house.

FINDING OUR WAY...

Along the road to higher education, many skills and activities must be acquired by these young students of life. Skills as basic as arithmetic are, of course, a necessity. But along today's highway of education, many other skills are a part of the educational process youngsters must undergo. Skills such as computer use and even fun things such as "The Achy Breaky Heart" dance are acquired in today's schools.

Pikeville Independent Schools opened the Haines Court Learning Center this school year. This very innovative center is designed to provide students in the area with a safe, encouraging, and productive place to study. Along with trained teachers to provide assistance, students also have access to encyclopedias, computers, books of all sorts, and many other learning tools. Two students are pictured here taking advantage of the computers provided in the center. Many times in our journey through school, a special teacher touches our life in a way which we always remember. Perhaps, Mrs. McGuire, pictured below, has no idea just how much her student, Justin Moore, appreciates her help!

Each year, teachers and students begin fresh. A new class, a new schedule, and most importantly, new friends!

THE READING HOTLINE CLUB

The Reading Hotline club is sponsored by Jatanna Hall, a sixth grade teacher, and it consists of very talented sixth grade members. With all of their creative minds at work they compose their very own newsletter for all the students and the faculty to read and enjoy. These talented students include Nikki Moore, Angela Blackburn, Kristi Ramey, Jay Christensen, Sabrina Johnson, Sarah Tackett, Melissa Slone, Kara Allara, Sarah Beth Tackett, Vanessa Walford, and Jamie King.

Sponsored by Amy Johnson and Tammy Hall, the 1992-93 Elementary Speech and Drama Team had become an active club at Pikeville Elementary. The Speech Club spends much time in preparation for several tournaments throughout the school year. This year, they accomplished their ultimate goal: competing in the state tournament. These young, talented members include Martha Templeman, Beth Easton, Jordan Adkins, Alan Hensley, Rebecca Hobbs, Emily Johnson, Genie Layne, Katie Wilson, Kevin Thacker, Ashley Holbrook, Becky Call, and Jess Call. Bethany Tiller, Sean Deskins, and Larrin Thompson are not pictured.

SPEECH AND DRAMA CLUB

ART CLUB

The art club is still a young, developing club at Pikeville Elementary School. Although there are only four members in the club, their sponsors, Mrs. Roberts and Miss Friend, believe it is the quality, not quantity that matters. The group is pictured in front of a bulletin board which they created. The members of this 1992-93 elementary art club include Michael Norman, Lucas O. Davis, Mickey Johnson, and James Adams.

ART AWARD

Whitney Lucus, a 6th grader, and Wendy Phillips, a fifth grader are two talented young artists at Pikeville Elementary School. These girls won the state poster contest for Kentucky Natural Resources Protection Cabinet. Their pictures and names appeared in a calendar that is distributed throughout the entire state of Kentucky. Congratulations, girls, on a job well done.

ELEMENTARY LIFE....

Oh How Sweet It It!

(Upper Center): Many young studnets (K-6) collaborated together to create a storybook which they presented to the senior A.P. English class.

(Lower middle): Erin McAnallen, one of the top performers on the PHS speech team, loves telling stories to smaller children. Her facial expressions show her happiness more than words, don't you agree?

(Lower right): This was Mrs. Howson's last year before retirement. She has grown with the times as she is now teaching such dances as the "Electric Slide" and the "Achy Breaky Heart".

MY NICKLE (NICOLE)

Hearing the birds this morning,
I knew they didn't know
Of a friendship that had parted
Temporarily by the soul.

In my eyes you always had a halo,
But now you've gained your wings.
Though never will I forget the warmth your grin could bring.

You couldn't enjoy your BIG win,
Because I myself had lost...
We had become each others sunshine
Even in a frost.

Never will I forget you...
I'll thank your mom each day
For giving me the entire sun
Instead of just a ray.

A hand-drawn illustration of a rectangular sign with rough, torn edges. The sign is tilted slightly upwards to the right. At the top center, there is a small rectangular tab with some scribbled lines. The text on the sign is written in a simple, hand-drawn font. Below the main text, there is a smaller line of text in a cursive-like font. The sign is supported by a post that is partially buried in a patch of grass at the bottom center. The entire illustration is set against a light gray background with a fine halftone dot pattern.

(Upper right): Ben Coleman appears to be studying. So Ben, what magazine is that hidden under your history book?

(Middle right): Here we see one of the finer points of Pikeville High School- research work in the library.

(Upper Middle): Apparently, these 7th and 8th graders have never heard of fingernail clippers.

(Upper right): Jesse Thacker seems to be hypnotized by something across the room, is it your dream girl Jesse?

says to the camera, "You go girl!"

ANOTHER DAY AT ## PJHS....

Students who are in Junior high school are at that stage of "in between". They are not yet in high school and have already left behind the comfortable world of elementary school. But, after awhile, junior high students slip into that same old "school" routine! Trips to the library, with and without a teacher, conversations with friends in the hallway, and of course, those fun class lectures! Junior High Students march to their own music!!

Junior High Graduation

(Upper left): Lenny Keene authored and presented this year's eighth grade class poem. (Upper center): Philip Elswick picked up a number of awards before his salutatorian address. (Upper right): The man of the evening was certainly Danny Branham. Not only was he recognized as valedictorian, but also received numerous other honors.

(Lower left): One of the most talented singers Pikeville High School has ever seen, Laura Ford, topped off the evening with the song, "One Moment In Time".

Laura was accompanied by Adam Harrison on piano (Lower center). (Lower right): The top ten students in the eighth grade class bask in the radiance of their academic excellence while Mrs. Stone gives them certificates of achievement.

CONGRATULATIONS!!

A TRIP TO PARADISE...

(Upper left): What's that on your nose, Tom Blanton? Only Laura Charles knows the answer to that one.

(Upper center top): "Gee whiz, Alijah, I didn't think you were that smart", exclaims

Jillian Bartley in astonishment.

(Upper Center Bottom): Tynisa Habern loves to strut her stuff on the dance floor as she shows everyone how to to the "The Funky Chicken".

Justice. (Lowere Left): Josh, don't look so sad. You can dance with Stacy Rose next time.

(Lower Center): Paula Edmonds must be the happiest girl at this dance. Could it be the guy she is dancing with? (Lower right):

That Shay, Robert So, no one else understood what he said either?

PJHS ACADEMIC TEAM

The Junior High Academic Team had an outstanding 1993 season. Following months of competitions, this group, consisting of 6th, 7th, and 8th graders, placed first in the 1993 District Governor's Cup Competition. At the Regional Competition, the Future Problem Solving Team won first Place. The quick recall team with sixth graders Jesse Call, Jim Kelly, and Praveen Mettu, also took first place. There were also many wins among the 7th and 8th graders. The entire team then traveled to Louisville in March to take part in their last competition of the year, the state championship. We Congratulate the Junior High Academic Team and their Coach, Susan Whitaker, for representing the Pikeville Independent School System with such success.

MATH COUNTS

Lower right: J. P. Blair shows Betsy Layne his new High Impact workout. "Look out boys!"

Sports at Pikeville High School are very important, and many young athletes participate in a variety of sporting events sponsored by Pikeville each year. It is important to remember that many of the fine athletes at Pikeville are also excellent students.

Panthers Show Promise

The young and inexperienced Panthers started the year with a struggle. Having only three Seniors made quite a difference, but the younger players quickly learned the tricks of the trade.

"I believe that we definitely went beyond our expectations, and the expectations of our fans to have a successful season," remarks Coach Allara.

The Panthers had some rough going at the beginning of the season, but as they got more experienced and more adjusted to the intense pressure and physical pain that football players must endure, they came through with flying colors.

Allara continues, "We are very proud of all our young men and their accomplishments as a team. We surprisingly won two big play-off games to Hazard and Cumberland, and eventually ended the season with a defeat from Beechwood, an outstanding club."

With the Beechwood win over the Panthers, a tiring but rewarding year came to a close.

The Panther football team included B. Simmons, C. Jones, J. Warner, J. McCoy, J. May, W. Bartley, A. Stone, D. Manning, F. Akers, S. Matulis, R. Childers, C. Cinnamon, A. Boyd, J. Barone, T. Mattingly, B. Cassidy, J. VanHoose, J. Hatfield, B. Ketchie, D. Hillen, J. Justice, B. Ramsey, C. Templeton, J. Gipson, B. Winger, J. Harris, L. Parrish, D. Hall, A. Mimmis, M. Colman, J. Pruitt, B. Tuckett, R. Smallwood, T. Akers, M. May, R. Layne, T. Newsome, S. VanHoose, R. Haskney, S. Kreuzler, M. McCoy, C. Thompson, C. Williams, N. Elswick, J.P. Blair, C. Goodman, C. Adkins, N. Reutiger, Coaches Jeff Stone, Gene Davis, Head Coach Bill Allara, Coaches Joe Mahan and Bobby Branham.

Senior Players- Gary Hunter, Nathan Elwick, Nathan Reutiger, Chad Williams, Shawn Justice, J.P. Blair and Chase Goodman.

Boy's Basketball '93

This was a pretty impressive first year for Coach Kevin Garris as he lead his team all the way to victory. A superior performance by the Panthers lead them to a runner-up position in the P.I.T., 59th District Champions, and all "A" region champions. They finished the regular season with a 15-12 winning record. The Panthers were lead by Seniors Tyrone Mullins, J.P. Blair, Shannon Blackburn, and Juniors Dustin Wallen, Stephen Kreutzer, John Coats, J.I. Joplin, John Michael Blair, and Alonzo McGill. Also, the Panthers required help from the bench of Sophomores which included Kevin Stepp, Ben Wagner, Jonathon Pruitt, Adam Minix, and Rory Hall. The Panthers ended their season after a devastating 2 pt loss in the 15th Regional Tournament to Prestonsburg. Congratulations once again on a terrific season! Good luck next year!

LADY PANTHERS '93

The Lady Panthers of Pikeville High School were a very young team this year. They tried to rebuild the team they had had the previous season, but we all know it takes years of work to make a championship team. Coach Priode is positive that the team next year will be much stronger with greater experience. The five seniors Sandy Ford, Lisa Kelly, Sarah Norman, Laurence Cottin, and Amy Akers stayed many hours after school to practice the rest of the team on the fine tactics of how to conquer any of the other teams that dared step on their court. Also helping out were sophomores Jami McKenzie, Laura Sohn, freshman Alena Simmons, Kristie Hall, Alyson Allara, Julie Freeland, and eighth graders Mary Beth Beeler, and Beth Boyd.

Leading the Panthers was senior Sandy Ford, who along with Sarah Norman and Lisa Kelly, has played since 7th grade. Sandy scored not only a record with an outstanding 53 points against Mullins. Also, in the first round of the District Tournament Sandy Scored her 200th point finishing the season with a total of 2026 points. Along with Sandy's school records she also lead the state as the leading scorer with an average of 30 points per game. Sandy is greatly appreciated and will be deeply missed.

The Lady Panthers took the floor a number of times this year many times coming up short, but always giving 100%. Congratulations on a fine season and good luck next year.

PHS BOY'S VARSITY CHEERLEADERS!

Cheerleading at Pikeville High School has evolved into a sport all its own. In the past, Cheerleading was a sideline to other sports, but as proven by Pikeville High School's championship competition cheer leading squad this year, this is no longer the case. Cheerleaders at Pikeville many of the teams at the school, but in addition they also compete as a separate entity.

PHS 1993 GOLF TEAM

The golf team had an outstanding season this past year led by senior, Grover Justice. Grover triumphed over other competitors when he finished first in the Clark County Invitational Tournament with a terrific score of 70, 2 under par. Grover and Cody Trimbale won the Kentucky Invitational Tournament in the two man event Alternate Shot Division, with a score of 72. He also placed third at the Montgomery County Invitational Tournament and most recently led the team to state competition after winning the regional tournament with a shot of 70.

Other than Grover and Cody, the team had a few other winners including freshman Neil Trimbale and eighth grader Patrick Damon. Neil played well in the Clark County Invitational as well as in the regional tournament. Patrick finished second in the Clark County Invitational Tournament, third in the regional tournament, and played exceptionally well at the state tournament held in Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

Overall, this season was one of the best in Pikeville's history. Hopefully, next year will be just as successful even though one of Pikeville's greatest, Grover Justice, will be graduating.

IT'S A HIT!

BASEBALL

The Pikeville Baseball team, despite several key losses, continued to win in 1993. The Panthers captured their sixteenth 15th Regional crown. The 1993 season has been dedicated to senior Nathan Elswick who missed his senior season due to cancer. With Nathan on their minds a determined squad has had a terrific season with a 26-14 record. Senior J.P. Blair ends a great career and is named to Kentucky Senior East All-Star team. Junior Jason McCoy was chosen to play for the junior squad on June 19 and 20 at Pleasure Ridge Park High School in Louisville. Coach Dave Thomas picked up his 200th career coaching win at Pikeville High School (146). Thomas will also coach the 1993 Senior East All-Star team in Louisville. We wish the team all the best in the sectional playoffs.

PHS SOFTBALL '93- A YEAR OF BROKEN RECORDS!

The PHS Softball Team broke the school record with a phenomenal 32-14 record. The season was filled with many accomplishments and few dissappointments. The Lady Panthers were runner-up in Division II of the Lowe's Invitational Tournament. One of the season highlights came during an 8-7 come from behind victory against the eventual Regional Champions Boyd County. The Lady Panthers fell to an impressive Millard team in the District finals but advanced to the semi-finals of Region with a tremendous win over Prestonsburg. Overall, the PHS softball team had an outstanding season, that will definitely go down in the record books.

(Center right) The 1993 PHS Softball Team was anchored throughout their spectacular season by a talented group of seniors. Their relationship and attitude, both on and off the field, not only made them strong teammates, but also close friends. Their special friendship with their coach, Jon Stratton, will always be very precious to them as they graduate from PHS and move on. Standing from left to right are Jon Stratton, Rebecca Robinson, Sarah Norman, Dana Huffman, Laura Sturgill, Megan Justice, and Lisa Kelly.

Pictured far bottom, Alicia Bartley, who placed 6th in the state with shot put, is expected to do even better this year with an undefeated record.

SPORTS!

(Left center) On another cold and rainy day these panthers, Derek Hall and Lynn Parish, are strutting their stuff out on the field.

(Lower left) He keeps coming back for more. J.I. Joplin, a newcomer to our school this year, has had an impressive year, not only on the football field, but also on the basketball court and track. There's no stopping this one.

(Lower left center) Senior J.P. Blair is one of the most outstanding athletes at PHS. Not only was he seen as quarterback of the football team, and a starter for the basketball team, but he was also a starting pitcher for the PHS baseball team. He helped lead the baseball team to a 3rd consecutive Regional Championship.

For the second year running, the Young Democrats have been considered one of the strongest and most active clubs of PHS. Their adventurous activities included everything from white water rafting at the Breaks to attending presidential rallies and the 1993 innauguration. Membership has continued to increase with each new year.

The 1992-93 PHS Academic Team completed a very competitive season. The team as a whole enjoyed a very successful competition in district action. Robert Bailey, a senior, was the only member of the team to place in the regional tournament. He received second place in math. The PHS Academic Team also competed in the Holiday Bowl Academic Tournament, and attended the EKAC Banquet, where they received several honors and awards.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is sponsored by Mrs. Bee Nunnery. This year's members are pictured above (row one) Kris Hall, Brant Tackett, Adrian Layne, Hank Newsome, Jason Varney, (row two) Tim Schindler, Sarah Baird, Chad Williams, Tosha Huffman, (row three) Dan Vongvises, Alicia Bartley, Willie Bartley, and Andrea Eslwick. (Upper left) Here we see senior, Robert Bailey, thrilled as ever to be out on a marching field. That's okay Rob, no one else had time to eat between practices either.

(Upper center) We can now see the many talents of our band director, Dan Houston. Not only can he teach chorus, but he can also play many instruments. I bet the faculty didn't know that!

(Lower left) Always ready for anything is Mark Hatfield's motto. Maybe we will catch you later on Broadway, Mark.-Nah!

(Lower center) Another exciting football game has definitely caught our band member's attention. Who is it you are looking for now Erica, #44, #53, #23, or #27?

(Lower right) Awaiting the results of competition is always the hardest part, but Ryan, Patrick, John, Robert, and Misty all seem to be pretty happy with the outcome.-As usual!

The 1993 Marching Panthers had quite a rough season. They had a very young band and a long summer. With the help of nine dedicated seniors, Mark Hatfield, Robert Bailey, April Compton, Ryan Newman, Eina Hensley, Rachel Stone, Andrea Elswick, Heather Coleman, and Stephanie Thomsbury, the band did end up with a lot of awards and recognitions.

The Concert Band attended the KMEA Concert Music Festival once again this year. They received straight superior ratings. This was the highest honor any band could achieve. Mr. Dan Houston, also founded the Big Sandy Valley Jazz Band. This consisted of students from both Pikeville High School and Shelby Valley High School. They worked very hard and performed at the 1993 Spring Concert.

Also this year, seven students were selected among the state for All-state Chorus and band. Those attending All-state Chorus were Patrick McCown, Tim Schindler, Ryan Newman, and Alicia Barley. All-state Band students were Robert Bailey, 1st chair symphonic band, Mark Hatfield, All-state Jazz, and Erica Hall, 1st chair and the only female attending All-state Jazz Band.

The band experienced many trials and tribulations this year. The band would like to say one word to Mr. Houston.-Thanks!!

Five talented young men and women participated in the State tournament this year. Finalist were Melissa Pinson in information; Melissa Pinson and Mark Hatfield placed 5th in Duo Interpretation; Erin McAnallen placed 4th in Dramatic Interpretation and 6th in Persuasive Speaking, and 6th with Jason McCoy in Duo Interpretation; Abby Sallee placed 4th in Declamation.

The spunky Speech and Drama students also presented RUMORS by Neil Simon as their spring performance and packed Chrissman Auditorium for five performances. The cast of RUMORS included Byron Smith, Emily Mellankamp, Mark Hatfield, Melissa Pinson, Erin McAnallen, Jay Evangelista, and Erica Hall. There were also a number of other students who helped with the set and sound.

THE SIXTH MAN

One could search far and wide and not find a more supportive and entertaining group of Panther fans than the PHS Sixth Man Club. These school-spirited students could be found year round on the football bleachers, the baseball grandstands, and at basketball games (when reserved seating was available).

The Sixth Man not only gained respect throughout PHS but their voices were heard throughout the community in the local newspaper. A special thanks to the club and its members for the impact they have made in Panther athletics.

Club members include Nathan Elswick, Lynn Parrish, Steve Huffman, Byron Smith, Derek Hall, Robbie Smith, Shannon Blackburn, Chip Templeman, Chad Williams, Beth Huffman, Cara Cinnamond, Josh Lynch, Kari Lindsey, Karen Kowalski, Megan Collier, Saral McGuire, Scott Harrison, Tommy Rose, Cindy Comms, Dana Burke, Malisha Ratliff, Ashley Branham, Taryn Damron, Ashla Hayes, Lucy Venters,

The Sixth man crew takes a breather during halftime of the district finals. Huff seems somewhat stressed unlike Byron, who already knows the Panthers have this one in the bag.

Abby observes Huff's unspoken confidence as he proudly displays his banner on Homecoming Day.

CO-ED Y

Co-Ed Y is going strong for the second year running. The sponsor of the club, Mr. Hampton, took the group to the Kentucky Youth Assembly in November, where Frankie Tackett was named Bailiff of the Supreme Court. Jamie Tucker was selected out of 1200 delegates to receive the A.D. Lichfield Outstanding Speaker Award.

This year, the Homecoming Dance was held in the lawn beside the school couples danced the night away under the stars.

Homecoming Attendants and their escorts wait anxiously for the crowning of the queen.

Senior attendant, Laryn Damron, rides through town in the annual parade.

Senior, Paige Davis, and her date stop to order pictures so that Homecoming 1992 will be a night always remembered.

Right: Richard Delueaney and Chad Williams show that they are "two of a kind" by eating cake instead of finishing their physics homework. Wait until Mrs. Kirn finds out!

Far right: Two of a kind, Elizabeth Ramsey and Beth Huffman, are always ready for a picture with their Colgate smiles.

Center right: Kari Lindsey and Ben Wagner have that mischievous look in their eyes. What's up guys?

Below: This must be a joke! Jamie Worrix and Stephen Huffman in the library? They must have known we were taking pictures.

The Best Things In Life Come In Threes!

Friends are nothing less than a gift from God. Picture 1: Shane Vanhooe, and Derek Hall are happily smiling for the camera, while Hays Justice is trying to remember the pledge to the flag.

Picture 2: Three of our famous basketball players, Shannon Blackburn, J.I. Joplin, and Jonathon Pruitt all seem to be enjoying the pep rally. Shannon and J.I. are also predicting how many points they'll have in the game. Picture 3: Lunch is one of the best times to laugh with friends and catch up on gossip. Taryn Dymron, Sarah McGuire, and Brooke Smith, seem to have heard a pretty good rumor. Picture 4: Laura Sohn, Magan Justice, and Laura Sturgill seem to be excited about something - there must be a sale at J-crew!

WHERE IN THE WORLD ARE YOU?

As students venture through the world of high school, many times they become caught up in the everyday occurrences in their lives and lose sight of their studies. Is this bad? Hardly. Everyone needs time to do their own thing in life. For most, they stray only for a while and then return to the harsh reality of school days and school ways. It is the detours one takes along the way which make the journey most interesting.

Picture 1. "When will it be my turn to drive, Hays?"

"Are you out of your mind, Jason? You haven't even finished the driver's manual yet!"

Picture 2: Ben Wagner drifts away from the Precalculus world of logarithms and cotangents to a place where he and his dream girl are together again.

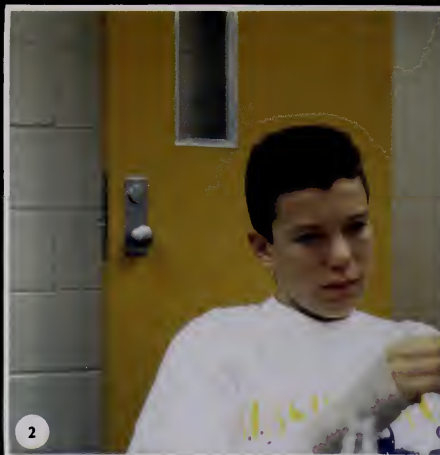

Picture 3: This sophomore English class takes a break from the world of Shakespeare in an attempt to find a world of their own.

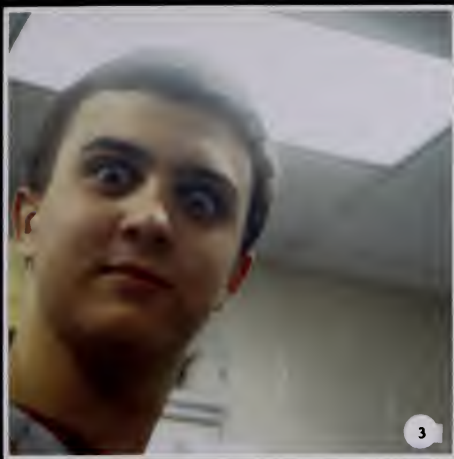

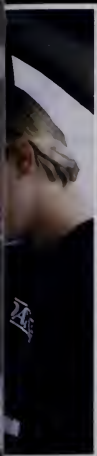

Picture 1: Josh Barone, trapped somewhere in a snow bank, lets out a desperate cry for help.

Picture 2: Where in the world are you, Cindy Combs? Hang on, help is coming!

Picture 3: Eric Deskins stares into dark emptiness as he is about to enter The Twilight Zone.

Picture 4: Tammy Newsome looks as if she would be more happy eatin' her grub at the Ponderosa than in the Commons Area.

"HE SAID.... SHE SAID...."

Today's society is one of changing views on many issues. The woman of the ninties has a mind of her own and is not afraid to share it with those around her. Laughter can often be found in the differing ideas of males and females.

Picture 1: "Snap! its as easy as that," jokes Sarah McGuire, "follow me, Ben." Ben Wagner is shocked by Sarah's confidence but decides to follow her anyway.

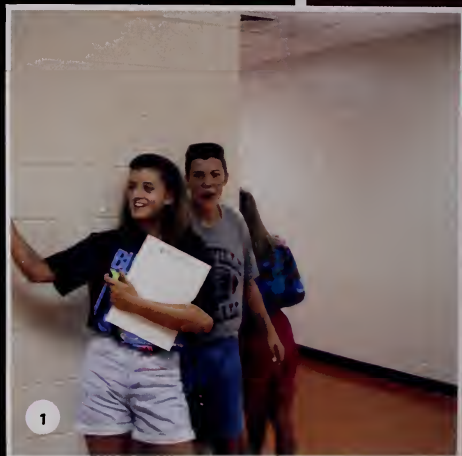

Picture 2: "Come on , Lucy, it was just a simple misunderstanding," begs Shane Vanhoose "Right, and now I understand!" replies Lucy Venters Picture 1: "Cade, I saw you talking to that tacky Barbie doll look-alike after the ballgame last night!" accuses his girlfriend, Courtney Lowe. "I was only getting a history assignment!" Cade Cinnamond protests.

Picture 2: "If you want to ride in my car, Sarah, you will have to agree to be my prom date." Jody Valera proposes. Sarah is flattered but cannot control her laughter as she imagines Jody, rather than herself, wearing the highheels.

Picture 3: "Emily, are you almost finished?" Tommy Rose whines "Oh, Tommy, what's your hurry? This place is great!" Emily Melancamp responds.

Picture 4: "You look particularly lovely this evening, Heather." compliments Grover Justice "Thank you." Heather replies with a laugh.

Picture 1: Cody Trimble, Shane Vanhoose, Robbie Smith, Niel Trimble, and Brock Justice take a break from the hum drum of school as they prepare for the winter Olympics.

Picture 3: Patrick Justice, Eric Deskins, Adam Minix, and Ben Wagner spend some "quality" time together in the halls between classes.

Picture 4: John Hatfield, Benny Cassidy, Shane Vanhoose, Richard Ketchie, and Derek Hall are showing much enthusiasm for the Panther's win.

A hand-drawn illustration of a rectangular sign with rough, torn edges. The sign is tilted slightly to the right. At the top center, there is a small rectangular tab with some illegible scribbles. The text on the sign is written in a simple, hand-drawn font. Below the sign, there are some scribbled lines representing grass or ground.

“I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU”

Prom 1993 was held at the Green Meadows Country Club, which was very different from the past. It turned out to be a big success.

“I Will Always Love You” was the theme song for this year’s prom. The evening consisted of beautiful love songs and also beautiful couples. It was a pleasurable evening for all who attended. A special thank you to all the junior class workers who helped pull this prom together.

Upper left: Go ahead, Shannon. Ask Lisa to dance!

Upper right and center: Heather May was crowned Prom Queen and Nathan Elswick Prom King.

Below: The Prom Court was Suzanne Deskins, J.P. Blair, Rebecca Robinson, Mark Hatfield, Taryn Damron, Tyrone Mullins, Malisha Ratliff, Byron Smith, Heather May, Grover Justice, Elizabeth Smith, Nathan Elswick, Lisa Kelly, and Shannon Blackburn.

Right center: Brock Justice- why do you have that suspicious look in your eyes? Is there something we should know?

Far right: tell us, Mark. We want to know why Rebecca is laughing so hard.

The 1993 Project prom was a tremendous success. Beginning the evening around 12 pm, there were many games such as Remote Control, the Newlywed Game, and Wheel of Fortune that kept all of the students busy until the final auction.

One of the many highlights of the evening was Mr. Project Prom. The winner, Tyrone Mullins, shocked us all in his bikini as he did many things to win. Everyone had a laugh at that, including his mother Tessie.

Through all the laughs, food, and prizes, this year's Project Prom will be remembered for years to come.

Upper middle: Jamie Worrix's favorite game was Remote Control. Maybe he just kept coming back for the popcorn.

Far right: Grover Justice is trying his luck at craps. You'd better hope it's a seven, Grover.

Center right: Jennifer Harris has no clue of the answer.

Below right: Reggie Smith was the dealer of the night as he tried to encourage Shane VanHoose and Lynn Parrish to bet all their money.

On May 30, the class of '93 ended the twelve year journey as eighty-one seniors and their families and friends flooded into the W.C. Hambley Athletic Complex. It was the first time in the school's history that graduation was held outside. Although there were a few obstacles to overcome, everyone came out feeling great.

The evening began as the senior class marched onto the field to the Fanfare and Processional "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the PHS band under the direction of Dan Houston. Lisa Kelly delivered the invocation; Heather May and Rachel Slone led the pledge to the flag; Rebecca Robinson delivered the scripture and Sarah Norman sang "It's Never Easy to Say Goodbye".

Principal Tom Swartz presented the honors, awards, and scholarships. Cathie Mueller recognized three distinguished alumni-E. Bruce Walters, Frances Elliott Campeau, and Otta Clevinger Barton. Co-salutatorians Heather coleman and Michael Cornett spoke of the future and goals. Valedictorian Ryan Newman performed a solo about lunch, KERA, cooks, and many other things.

After the presentation of diplomas, Mark Hatfield and Ena Hensley sang "The Great Adventure". Then Superintendent John Waddell confirmed the graduation. The class farewell was given by Sarah McGuire. The benediction was led by Malisha Ratliff.

The Panther '93 Yearbook Staff

Recording the Adventure...

This year was a very challenging year for The Panther staff. Because of a late change of sponsor, no one knew when the staff would get started. In spite of a small number, and a late start, the staff and Mrs. Rebecca Coleman, sponsor, worked hard and produced a quality yearbook.

A special thanks goes 'out' to Heather May (editor), Erica Hall (sports), and Brooke Smith (editor) for going that extra mile to see that this book was completed. The theme for this year's book was inspired by the fact that we are pioneering in computer yearbook technology this year. While it is true that this staff is "Marooned at PHS", it is equally true that they are undergoing an adventure in learning which will remain apart of them long after they are "rescued"!

Pictured above, our staff searched long and hard for a spot which would show their adventurous spirit. You can't see the hill they descended to capture this moment, but it indeed, shows their spirit! Standing (left to right) Cara Cinamond, Erica Hall, Adrian Layne, Brook Smith, (Seated left to right) Tammy Newsome, Jessica Hatcher, Lisa Kelly, Heather May, and Laura Sturgill. (Not pictured, Niki Stanley)

Editors

Many people play an important role in bringing together a yearbook. As we began our journey this year we were uncertain of our course, but sure of our destination. Many have helped us find our way, and we thank each of you. We would like to extend a special thanks to our patient advisor, Rebecca Coleman who dedicated many hours after school to the yearbook. Thanks, also, to members of the faculty and staff who made our job a little easier. Special thanks to Debbie Holbrook for always allowing us a few minutes of your time. To our Jostens representative, Tom Brush, thanks for compromising with us and for encouraging us to do things which were new to us. Thanks to Olin Mills for being there when we needed you. We would like to thank each business and parent for patronizing our book. Without sponsors this book would not be possible.

The hardest thing in life is saying goodbye, but for us the time has come to do so. Many new roads are ahead of us, untouched and untraveled. As we begin a new life at college next year, we will have the beautiful memories of our final year of "captivity" to treasure. Many long hours and late nights went into this book, but so did many happy times. As you read a this book, we hope you will enjoy it and treasure it always. Life will take the three of us in different directions, but this book will always be a common tie between us.

We extend our best wishes for a successful book to next year's staff and hope they will continue to explore new frontiers.
