Mounting their art pieces, Danielle Estrada and Kayla Young (below) prepare for the Spring Showcase where student work will be on display. Will TIDE be able to get these tough stains out?! Layne Cecil and Tolliver Hefner spent hours in the hills riding through mud puddles.

A New Beginning

Blair Conn, Audrey Blackburn, and Stephanie Ratliff mold their clay into earthenware before placing the pieces in the kiln for firing.

A new year begins. It's hard to imagine what is before us. Experiences are suppose to teach us, help us grow. Victories, accomplishments, disappointments, and frustrations are strangers to no one.

Writer Chuck Yeager said it best. "You do what you can for as long as you can, and when you finally can't, you do the next best thing. You back up but you don't give up."

Students at PHS persevered to the end.

Juniors traveled to the East Ky. Science Center in Prestonsburg to gaze at the constellations and study ice age animals. (far left) Lindsey Cross, LeAnn Clevenger, and Rachel Hobbs ask their tour guide questions. (middle) Before leaving, Natalie Gooch, David Houston, and Chase Childers visited the gift shop. They discovered that dried ice cream had a really strange taste! (below) Brady Blankenship and Matthew Huffman take notes on the skull of an animal.

Most who walk the halls at PHS take pride in being their own person, more specifically, in being DIFFERENT. It's important to respect and appreciate every individual for who they are, whether it be the artist...musician...athlete...actor...student...

A new tradition at PHS! (above right) The football team gathers after home games to sing the school song. Fans in the stands soon joined in. Then the tradition carried over to pep rallies. Sophomore Brad Bryant leads the group. (right) After promising her students last year that she would wear blue jeans to school IF they scored higher on the CATS test than the students from the year before, seventh grade science teacher Mary Belcher held true to her word. (below left) While visiting Karach, Pakistan for a family wedding, Zahra Mansoor enjoyed the taste of flavored water inhaled from a hooka. Upon exhaling, various colors of smoke filled the room. (below right) Students, faculty, and staff were treated to a picnic outside during lunch. Cody Williams and Jordan Sisco enjoyed the music, warm sun, and especially the food!

Several Pikeville students spent the summer months rehearsing and performing in the Jenny Wiley Theatre. A summer favorite, Peter Pan, showcased the talents of (from left) Jasmine Osborne (Tiger Lily), Rebecca Dawahare (Curly a Lost Boy), and John Code (Pirate).

A Little Goofy

No matter how crazy, chaotic, boring, happy, lucky or hapless our days turn out to be, almost always we end up doing something GOOFY. It's during these moments that all the stress peels away and laughter emerges.

Challenges.

Everyday we challenge ourselves a little more, whether it's in the classroom, on the field, playing a game in gym class, or just trying to find something to do on the weekends. Whatever the quest is, Pikeville students find excitement in undertaking the CHALLENGE!

(top right) With hopes of leading their class to a victory, McKenzie Carter carts Max Pafunda across the gym floor to the finish line. (above) Clark Keene and a friend accept the challenge of running the chains at a little league game. (above right) After ascertaining the art of makeup at Girls' Night out, Cassidy Caudill shows Colby Kurkowski her skills. (right) Sam Coleman waits for his cue during halftime at a football game.

A: Robert Shurtleff

MAX LEARNING

When it comes to creativity and commitment to learning, those who walk the halls at PHS don't limit their opportunities. They make decisions about what they want to do and then pursue the quest- inside and outside the classroom.

Experience

AN ADVENTURE

Our time in school is filled with ADVENTURE! Many of the escapades students find themselves involved in, whether appropriate or not, prove to provide for invaluable lessons.

It's when we reflect back on those experiences that we come to some sort of understanding of the significance of those moments. Hopefully, we learn something. For it is those ADVENTURES that define us, often dictating the paths we choose.

(top) Several churches in the area banded together in June to sponsor the youth ministry "Soak a City." Natalie Gooch and Karlee Tucker, along with hundreds more, gathered in the Pikeville College gymnasium. Live bands, an illusionist, and Chaos on Wheels entertained during the weekend event. (middle left) Future renowned artists Nicole Coleman and Amy Robinson create masterpieces. (middle right) Taking a snooze in the summer sun, Ross Shurtleff is oblivious to his surroundings. (right) Thirty Jr. high students traveled to Abington, Va., in December to watch a Barter Theater production and eat at the Martha Washington Inn. The students saw A Modern Christmas Carol, the classic, with adaptations by Richard Rhose.

with a reporter following the girls' victory over Betsy Layne in the 15 Region All "A" Classic finals at Allen Central. The Lady Panthers Won 63-52.

Memorable

Making every moment a moment to remember... getting together before a game to paint your bodies or to dress in camo or swim wear, working out at the YMCA, or celebrating achievements.

No matter what your idea of a special moment is, students can make it happen.

Former Pikeville Elementary School teacher Sylvia Bailey (top) reads with first grader Cody Diets. Do you remember when YOU first learned to read? Coveted in maroon paint, Tyler Vinson (middle left), along with other classmates, gets pumped for a football game. A special assembly recognized students who scored proficient or distinguished on the CATS test. Mr. Mayo presents Kory Brinker (middle right) with a certificate of achievement. Annie Carter, Katlin Justice, and Keill Dorton (bottom) enjoy sleep overs, especially at Keill's where they can ride their golf cart!

As soon as the bell rang signaling the end of another school day, Jessica Hurston, Charla Brooks, Chastia Bartley, and Kenneth Zane (bottom right) gathered outside for some fun while waiting for their bus. (left) Working all day in the hot sun, Dylan Adkins, Taylor Ratliff, and Dustin Boyd wash cars to raise money for their C.N Ripken baseball league. (bottom left) Gordon Newsome, Kenneth Zane, Donnie Smith, and Stewart Little serve soft drinks during the annual Holiday Coffee.

Cherish the time you have with the people you love; they won't be there forever.

Joseph Gray Adkins

What you call a hero...I call just doing my job!

Tabitha Carol Adkins

The truth of the matter is that you always know the right thing to do. The hard part is doing it. Never lose a chance of saying something kind.

Anna Marie Allen

Harry Ryan Altman

Sometimes you're flush and sometimes you're bust, and when you're up, it's never as good as it seems, and when you're down you never think you'll be up again. But life goes on.

Haylee Salena-Blair Anderson

People believe they are being strong by holding on to something. But it takes an even stronger person to let something go.

Audrey Lynn Blackburn

When the first baby laughed for the first time, the laugh broke into a thousand pieces, and they all went skipping about, and that was the beginning of Fairies.
- J.M. Barrie

Miranda Lei Blackburn

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I can not change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference.

Gina Leigh-Ann Bryant

"A prayer for the wild at heart, kept in cages."

Richard "Ricky" Burchfield

In life "there are two paths you can go by, but in the long run, there's still time to change the road you're on."
- Led Zeppelin

Kenneth Roland Case

Trouble ahead, trouble behind, and you know that notion just crossed my mind.

Jessica Lynn Casey

Love takes no pleasure in peoples sins, but delights in the truth . It is always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope, and to endure in whatever comes.

Justin Caudill

John Wayne Coleman II

If you love something, let it go... let me tell you, that's really hard to do.

Jessica Blair Conn

Never explain yourself. Your friends don't need it and your enemies won't believe it.

Chelsey Ryan Cool

Life shouldn't be measured by how many breaths we take, but how many moments take our breath away.

Elizabeth Amelia Crum

Olivia Shay Daniels

Soon we will find that the important things in life are not the advertised things, but the memories leading up to them is what we remember.

MLA format? Source cards?
 Note cards? Thesis statement? Bibliography? "Wait a minute, Ms. Huffman. What language are you speaking?" many juniors wondered.

Initially, the 97 juniors were wary of the steps in the research process. However, once they selected their topics and did some exploratory reading in several references, everyone discovered that the assignment wasn't that difficult.

Activities and Organizations

Members of the PHS Academic Team flew to Disney World in Buena Vista, Florida in June to represent Kentucky at the national tournament. One team of six high school students is selected to represent each state and U.S. territory.

Playing to My Own Beat

The PHS band does so much during its' season! From entertaining fans during football games, to playing 'Tequila' for basketball pre-game, they stayed busy! This energetic group performed at pep rallies and Open House, as well as the Veterans Day Memorial service.

Making a Joyful Noise

Six students from PHS were accepted into Kentucky All-State Chorus. The students auditioned for the chorus in October with the song "Set Me as a Seal" by Eleanor Daley. McKenzie Carter, Rebecca Dawahare, Mallory Draughn, David Houston, Jasmine Osborne, and Rachel Sidle were among the 600 students from across the state to participate in the chorus.

They performed on stage at Whitney Hall in the Kentucky Center for the Arts in Louisville.

Members of the SATB chorus performed "The River," written by Victoria Shaw and Garth Brooks, during graduation. (row 1) Lauren Branham, Krystine Glass, Claire Fish, Rebecca Dawahare, Stephen Vance, David Houston, McKenzie Carter, Kyle Taylor, Sarah Beth Mounts, Tara Sword, Jessca Kitts, (row 2) Casey Kurkowski, Amella Crum, Rachel Kanney, William Hogg, Brett Gibson, Jordan McGhee, and Evin Shockey. The group was directed by Dan Houston and accompanied on the piano by Dena Gibson.

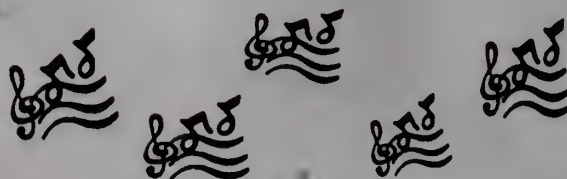

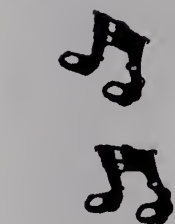

The voices of (front) Elizabeth Meade, Rebecca Dawahare, Olivia Daniels, (back) Lauren Branham, Kelli Kerr, Rachel Kanney, and Rachel Sidle were heard throughout the auditorium during a special Veteran's Day program.

Following a slide presentation that recognized several PHS alumni veterans, Junlor Stephen Vance sang a solo.

(front) Shelby Steele, Katie Akers, (back) Erin Wheeler, Virginia Whitt, Mollie Dawahare, and other members of the Jr. high chorus sang "Only Hope" during eighth grade graduation.

"Live The Adventure" It's Just Business

Members attending the regional competition at Morehead State University include: Ryan Altman, Anthony Amaglla, Ken Case, Jessica Casey, Jahnavi Chandrashekar, Pranav Chandrashekar, Chase Childers, Brian Elkins, Jordan Hall, Ross Beau Harris, Suzie Harville, Alf Hussain, Faraz Jeelani, C.D. Johnson, Meghan Justice, Zahra Mansoor, Tyson Mauk, Ricki Maynard, Toney Robinette, Shilpa Sachdeva, Max Smith, Michael Tackett, Xenia Tariq, Krishna Vyas, Morgan Waddles, Michael Wisdom, and Tiffany Yates.

"Live the adventure" is the philosophy of this diligent group. FBLA prepares young adults to dive into the business world and experience a chosen profession. PHS students took the initiative to learn more about their areas of interest.

come and worship with Fellowship Of Christian Athletes

You might see these students in the classroom or at school events, but you'll also find them talking and singing about God each Thursday morning before school. Jennifer Lockhart sponsored the club and Matt Huffman began his first year as president. "We try to use the athletes' influence on the school in a positive way," Matt explained when sharing a purpose of the group.

(above left) Fellowship at the Pole at 7:40 a.m. was a common occurrence at PHS. Beginning with donuts and milk, students mingled before a program began. Praise songs, skits, scripture readings, and personal testimonies usually followed. (above right) The National Day of Prayer found not only students gathered in front of the school but community members as well. Katherine Hurt, Virginia Whitt, Sara Tackett, Bradley Loader, and others participated in this special event.

Juniors and seniors maintaining a 3.5 GPA are invited to join the prestigious National Honor Society each fall. Upon completing an application, which is then reviewed by a selected committee, a group of dedicated students are then chosen to represent the school through outstanding academic achievement and community service.

Several activities the group sponsored during the year included: two blood drives, Phonathon, food drives, school supply drive, and the induction ceremony.

This organization is rooted in helping others. They aim to set aside individual needs in order to focus on the betterment of their fellow man-kind.

Seniors

Meet expectations... when they were freshmen, the present junior class felt the excitement AND the pressure to defeat the senior class. When there's that kind of expectation—the group worked on being totally focused. However, on the other hand, this year's seniors were determined to hold on to their crown; as juniors the year before, they were the champions.

Memories Are Made Of This...

A warm night in late September set the stage for Homecoming 2004. For the first time EVER the dance was held in the gymnasium. Maroon and white, the prevalent colors, provided the back drop for a night of fun and dancing.

While Lindsey Trent and Tyler Thompson (star burst) keep the dance floor HOT, Cory Hamilton and Olivia Harris (middle left) snuggle close.

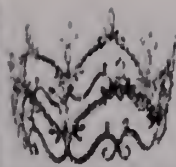

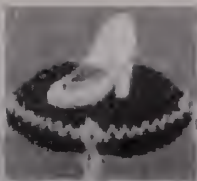

"We're going to sit this one out!" exclaim Toney Robinette, C.D. Johnson, Ada Smith, Travis Maynard, and Tabitha Adkins.

At Last... Prom 2005

The Junior Prom Committee transformed the Mark II into an unforgettable evening. Upon entering the room, an illuminated city landscape mesmerized the dancers. Parisian fir trees, dancing silhouette figures, and city street lights added to the magic of the event. Draped around the dance floor, black and red gossamer added the finishing touch.

The girls' team, under first-year Coach Karla Corbin, grabbed its first-ever trip to the state tournament, coming in as the runner-up in the 10th Region Tournament at the Paintsville Country Club.

The Lady Panthers' team score of 416 gave them the runner-up trophy, beating out defending regional champion Russell by one shot.

Under the direction of first year Coach Mike Castle, the boys played in eight tournaments, including a preseason tournament at Jenkins' Rave Rock Golf Course (they won!). Joe Castle was the individual medalist.

They took fourth in the P.I.T. The only teams finishing ahead of Pikeville were Louisville St. Xavier, Louisville Trinity, and Covington Catholic, the 2004 state champ, the 2003 state champ, and the 2004 state runner up, respectively. Joe finished tied for third. The team finished fourth in the Montgomery County HS Invitational, with Joe finishing tied for medalist, only to be defeated in a play off.

A Successful Team Beats With One

What a year it has been for these young ladies! Beginning at UK's cheerleading camp, they went on to the annual Kings' Island Competition, placing 1st runner-up. Months later, the girls received 3rd at UCA Bluegrass Region and GRAND CHAMPIONS of the Class 'A' State Competition. In February, the Boys' Varsity Cheerleaders became National Finalists in the small varsity division and finished the year with 2nd place in the state! Congratulations on such a successful year!

The girls' varsity cheerleading squad experienced a rebuilding year. With a young squad, they placed first in their division at Class "A" state, first runner-up at the UCA National High School Cheerleading Championship, and fourth runner-up in a very tough division at the state-at-large competition.

Despite the challenges the girls faced during the year, they were proud of their successes.

Katie Akers, Shelby Steele, Mackenzie Bentley, Sara Tackett, Kaitlyn Justice, Erin Wheeler, Taylor Stone, Elizabeth Lee, Autumn Coleman, and Amanda Goff are ready to hit the parks in Disney world.

Ninety-six eighth graders entered Alumni Auditorium Tuesday evening, May 24 to Pomp and Circumstance, performed by the high school concert band. Several students participated in the program. James Cleary and Sara Tackett led The Pledge to the Flag. The invocation was delivered by Kaltyn Justice. Elizabeth Lee welcomed everyone to the ceremony. Taylor E. Stone read the class poem and gave the benediction, and Mackenzie Bentley delivered the Charge to the Class. (above left) Katie, Whitney, Kristen, Elizabeth, James, and others listen to the band's performance of "Over the Rainbow." # COMMOTION

The noise, the crowd, the jammin' sound...
Jr. High Pep Club members create excitement!

An excited group of seventh and eighth girls met throughout the year in order to plan activities for their classes.

During basketball and football seasons they decorated lockers, made spirit letters and treat bags, and cheered the teams on to victory. They supported the cheerleaders as well.

Probably their two biggest undertakings during the year were the Halloween Dance and the Christmas Dance. The girls, their parents, and sponsor Susan Huffman decorated the jr. high Commons Area on both occasions.

Jingle Bell Rock!

Blue, silver, and green metallic streamers covering the walls of the Jr. High Commons Area reflected the movements of the dancers. Whether they snuggled close, danced to the moccarena, moved in a train, or enjoyed the food, everyone had a blast!

"I'm open!" exclaims Brianne Hatmaker as she covers her corner. Concentrating on the shot, Candace Ward swishes the basket for two.

Pikeville Panthers... We Want 6!

The junior high football team garnered a great season! These Panthers in training dominated on the field, tackling their opponents and working their way to victory! First year coach Billy Johnson said he couldn't be prouder of the 33 young players who finished the season sixth out of 16 teams in their new conference! Great job, guys!

Pikeville Elementary School fourth grade students celebrated and worked hard during the last week of school as they collaborated with teachers and professionals to build a wetland area near the school's playground.

The school received an Environmental Education Grant from the P.R.I.D.E. organization that allowed them to create the wetland, specifically, a vernal pond. A vernal pond is a type of seasonal or temporary wetland that houses aquatic plants such as cattails, bulrushes, and sedges. This type of pond makes a wonderful outdoor classroom, offering learning experiences from design and construction to full restoration phases.

Students will be able to visit the pond and count or collect tadpoles, frogs, toads, and salamanders. Curriculums for PES science students will be established around the pond, allowing students to track plant and animal life in different seasons.

Ann Blackburn Tiller
October 13, 1948 - August 22, 2004

Ann was the daughter of Rose Robinette Blackburn Honaker and the late Paul Maurice Blackburn. She was library assistant at Pikeville Elementary, a member of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, and a member of First Baptist Church, Pikeville.

Besides her mother, Ann is survived by her husband Warren Parker Tiller, son, Trevon Parker Tiller, one daughter, Bethany Tiller, and one brother, Bill Ronald Blackburn.

Lola Lee Lockhart
April 26, 1945 - October 6, 2004

Lola attended Pikeville High School until her junior year when her family moved. She then enrolled at Mullins High School where she graduated the following year. Her Pikeville High class always invited her to the class reunions.

Lola started working at Pikeville Elementary School in the spring of 1977. She was the lunchroom manager and, until her passing, had worked in the lunch service program longer than anyone else at the elementary school—27 years. Lola was very dedicated to her work; on October 6, 2004, she still had over 40 sick days.

Lola was extremely interested in her children's extra-curricular activities. She attended almost all of their ball games, home and away.

Lola is survived by her husband, Rex Lockhart; five children—Tammy Lockhart, Cindy Lockhart, Rebecca Adkins, Lisa Stiltner, and Gordon Lockhart; and five grandchildren—Justin Lockhart, William Elliott, Dalton Thacker, Bailey Thacker, and Britt Adkins.

Firefighter's Prayer

When I am called to duty, God,
Whenever Flames may rage
Give me strength to save a life
Whatever be its age.

Help me embrace a little child
Before it is too late
Or save an older person from
The horror of that fate.

Enable me to be alert
And hear the weakest shout
And quickly and efficiently
Put the fire out.

I want to fill my calling
To give the best in me
To guard my friend and neighbor
And protect his property.

And if according to my fate
I am to lose my life
Please, bless with your protecting hand
My children and my wife.
