Splashing through the sand bar, talking by the campfire,

Summer can be more than just vacation time; it's also a great opportunity to do things you never have a chance to do during the school year.

If you enjoy the outdoors, then maybe a week at the beach, a day at King's Island, or relaxing a few hours in a hot tub will make the summer memorable. On the other hand, doing something more constructive could be the way you go - summer camps, internships, or work.

Whatever YOU decide to do, make the most of opportunities presented to you.

creating ads, and writing feature articles. (bottom right) Taking the reins, Aliyha Dotson shows confidence during her horse back riding lesson.

It's the simple things in life

Like when and where

(top) Morgan Curry, Gavin Miller, Lindsey Isner, Molly Bates, and Sarah Lucas chilled out at Lindsey's house in the heat of the day. (below) Jaymie Collins and her parents spent eight days in Los Angeles, California, volunteering with RAM - Remote Area Medical. (2nd row right) A die-hard Jonas Brothers fan, Elizabeth Huffman attended her seventh concert at Rupp Arena.

I ALWAYS FEEL LIKE...

Just when you think no one's watching, that's when you get caught on camera! Pikeville students found this out the hard way when the candid camera recorded some unforgettable moments.

Expect the Unexpected!

SOMEBODY'S WATCHIN' ME!

Hey now, You're an All Star. Get your game
on. Go play!

Singers, actors, musicians, athletes, artists, dancers, and who knows what else can be found at PMS. Known around the region for outstanding talent, look around and you'll see a few!

ABC...

What learning style helps you learn best? Are you a visual learner, auditory learner, reading/writing learner? Or do you learn best by working hands-on? Depending on the student will depend upon the style. However, all approaches to learning can be found in the classrooms at Pikeville Independent.

(top) Mackenzie Robinson, Hannah Harris, Madi Smith, and Kelli Dorton move to tribal music in fine arts. (above left) Water and tender loving care insure that Sarah Belcher's flower will grow. (above middle) Star Fall, an educational reading game, helps Daniel Gentry improve on his skills. (above right) A Computer Support project engages students Larry Ratliff, Alex Taylor and others in how to install new hardware in computers. (3rd row left) "Pick a bone!" say Wendi Smith, Austin Burke, Turner Altman, Ethan Ratliff, and Chris Meadows. Whether it's the patella, radius, femur, or ulna, thanks to Mr. Priode's health class, students can identify the bones in the body. (3rd row right) Damien Phillips concentrates on reverse FOILING a problem in Algebra II. (bottom left) The Christmas Santa Shop gave Mallory Childers and Taylor Howell the opportunity to sell candy canes in order to raise money for Christmas gifts. (bottom right) Alyson Kennon, Jack Carter, Johanna Kahra, and Emily Thacker work on finding the derivative.

Easy As 1.. 2.. 3!

dolls. (row 2, left) As Lauren May works on her masterpiece. Mrs. Smith draws her attention to the focal point. (row 2, right) These quadratic equations can be so difficult! Josh Tackett works through the steps to find the answer. (3rd row, left) Taylor Chaney isn't afraid to rock it out in Mr. Houston's guitar class. (3rd row, right) As part of an 8th grade project on chick embryology and hatching. Destanie Hager, Kassi Brewer, Alyson Coleman, and Megan Maynard welcome the baby chicks after a 21 day incubation period.

It's the Weekend Baby...

Whether it's chillin' with friends, playing outdoors, or hittin' the road, Pikeville's students know how to have fun...so when the weekend rolls around we're always on the run. Laughing and smiling all the way through...until Monday comes then we have work to do. We work hard all week where we learn new things...can't wait 'til Friday when the final bell rings.

We're About to Have Us Some FUN!!!

(top left) Kristin Little, Niki Varney, Jennifer McDonald, and Mackenzie Robinson show off their Uggs. (top right) As soon as the bell rings signaling the end of the school day, couples and freinds gather in the Commons Area. J.P. Coleman and Jessica Branham chat before heading home. (row 2, left) Looking cool in their shades, Clint Justice and Mason Billiter catch some rays. (row 2, right) Jasmine Wilson, Blair Pack, Destanie Hager, and Joseph Hall are enthralled in the Twilight romantic suspense series. (row 3, left) Jackets and hats were a craze among some PHS students. Just ask Ross McCoy, Madison Coleman, and Steven Layne. (row 3, middle and bot tom middle) Hillbilly Days 2010 provided extra excitement for a few students who bought pets while visiting venders in downtown Pikeville. Matthew and Christine Walz introduce their new Yorkie, Luey, while Savannah Pratt shows off her sugar glider, Boo. (row 3, right) Dalton Williamson, Tyler Wright, Jonathan Worrix, and Dalton Stanley look forward to Hat Day on Fridays. (bot tom right) Kaneshia Compton, Taylor McQuire, Hana Yusuf, and Amanda Zoellers sport cool cell covers.

Every generation has a style of their own, whether it be in fashion, technology, or music. And where they hang out or what they do for fun is also determined by the people of the time. Pikeville students also left their mark... in the hallways at PHS.

(top) Paula Jo Roberts and Kathleen Smith proudly wear their plaid! (middle left) For many, backpacks were replaced by totes. Chelsea Coleman, Stephanie Brown, Jaymie Collins, and Morgan Ratliff find that totes help keep them organized. (middle right) A cooking class offered two days a month after school produced quite a few chefs. Shelby Conn, Jessica Thomas, and Natasha Conn mastered the omelet. (3rd row) "Happy Birthday" greetings awaited Catherine Dawahare on her way to school. (3rd row right) Unique lunch boxes make a statement. Sixth graders Mykah Fannin, Kassidy Caudill, and Sydney Fannin bring their lunches most days during the school year. (bottom left) Bailey Lovern enjoys a pedicure at California Nails. (bottom right) Megan Collins and other students who drive to school spend a few minutes in their cars listening to music before the 8 a.m. bell rings.

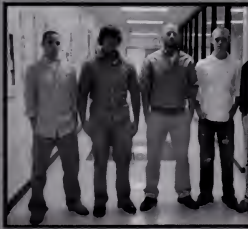

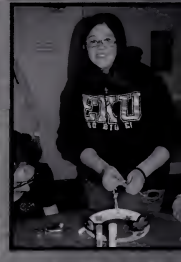

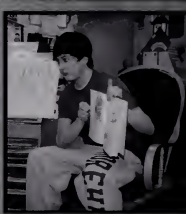

Changing it up.

Eighty-one Graduates Celebrate

Even though many had said, "I can't wait to graduate," in the weeks leading up to graduation several seniors were nostalgic about leaving the familiar halls of PHS.

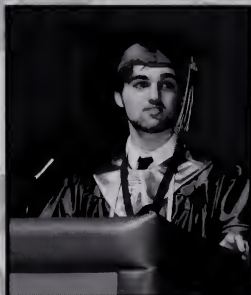

As they gathered in the eighth grade wing prior to Commencement on Sunday, May 28, most posed for pictures and a few even shed a few tears. However, the time eventually came for the junior ushers to lead the group in to "Pomp and Circumstance."

National Honor Society

Recognizes and Encourages Academic Achievement

More than just an honor roll, NHS serves to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Membership, made up of juniors and seniors, requires a minimum 3.5 GPA, a completed application, and 1.5 hours of community service. A fall induction ceremony initiates new members.

Activities sponsored by NHS include a Bloodmobile Drive, Pennies for Patients, and food baskets during Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Student Council

Promotes School Spirit and Leadership Among Students

Student Council, made up of four elected positions and 36 council members who are chosen through an interview process, work to be a voice for all students.

Their year began by helping with pre-registration and then assisting with Open House in August. Later, a Halloween party gave members an opportunity to dress in costumes and enjoy a lot of food and fun.

Students then adopted a foster child and showered them with Christmas gifts. Following the disaster in Haiti on January 12, members set up tables at a basketball game to collect donations to aid in the country's relief efforts.

The County's Best Working to Change the Community

Pike County Youth Leadership Council

Pike County Youth Leadership, comprised of students from all high schools in the county and city, conducts two community service projects each month. Several PHS students were actively involved, whether on the Council or on the Board. Junior Paula Jo Roberts spear-headed the Pikeville group.

Several leadership and community service activities kept the group busy throughout the year. They worked on animal abuse awareness, collected canned goods for the Hope Shelter, and helped celebrate Christmas by parading through town on the leadership float.

They also assembled and delivered Easter baskets to Pikeville Medical Center and worked with the Kiwanis Club with Christmas in July and Fall Festival in the city park. Council members modeled red gowns at Pikeville Medical Center's event for heart health awareness and sponsored an all night Dance-a-thon to raise money for Relay for Life.

(top) Pikeville's Board members include Devin Burchett and Jessica Casebolt. School representatives to the Council include Paula Jo Roberts, Shikha Sachdeva, and Haley Wagner. (middle left and right) Pikeville Medical Center sponsored "Red Runway," an event to raise money for heart health awareness. PCYLC recruited members from their individual schools to participate in the event. (bottom) All schools participating in PCYLC host a meeting each month. Jessica and Paula Jo await the beginning of a regular session.

Under the direction of Dan Houston, the PHS band made quite an impression during the year.

The marching band, with field commander MaKayla Compton at the helm, participated in the Homecoming Parade and halftime at the game, as well as the Model City Day Care Halloween Parade.

The Pep Band supported both the football and basketball teams and performed at the Veteran's Day Program and the high school graduation.

This talented group dazzled audiences at the Winter, Spring, and Pop Concerts, as well as in the school musical "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Music is What Feelings Sound Like

Choral music is an important part of the PHS curriculum for students. It not only provides a place to experience music through singing and moving, but also provides a place where students may excel and succeed.

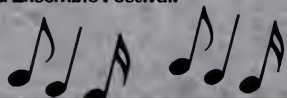

These talented vocalists showcased their talents at the Pop, Winter, and Spring Concerts, as well as during junior high graduation and high school commencement exercises.

They were ranked distinguished when they sang at Pikeville College's Choral Festival. Two seniors, MaKayla Compton and Paige Newsom, were selected to participate in All-State Chorus, and another senior, Alyson Kennon, was ranked distinguished at the State Solo and Ensemble Festival.

Teachers of Tomorrow...FEA

New to PHS, the Future Educators Association - FEA - is designed to provide high school students with the opportunity to explore careers in education.

Through the Principles of Teaching class, students were exposed to all areas of teaching - creating bulletin boards, designing lesson plans, providing assistance in the classroom, and reading to pre-school students. The class also honored teachers during Teacher Appreciation Week with desserts.

Putting the Right Words in the Write Places

Creativity? Check! Originality? Check! Talent? Check! Now we're talking creative writing.

Whether you simply had a passion for writing or wanted to learn more or had a specific interest (creative writing, fiction, non-fiction, poetry, screen writing, or whatever), this group provided an avenue for students to express themselves.

The Creative Writing Team was packed with excellent writers who came together every month to compare and review their writings. They explored universal themes, entertained with comic relief, and amazed everyone with the beauty of words.

We've Got Something to Say!

The Speech Team, a competitive organization, helps develop public speaking skills and self-confidence. It's a great forum for creative expression.

Many members develop important academic skills like writing, research, organizational skills, and literary interpretation. This group can also be a great place to develop skills in acting as well.

Part of the Kentucky Speech League (KHSSL), members attended the Regional competition in Knott County. Five members had the opportunity to compete at the State level in Broadcasting, Duo Interpretation, Oral Interpretation, Improvisation Duo, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Original Oratory.

Integrity, Serving, Teamwork, Excellence

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

The largest Christian campus ministry in the world, FCA focuses on serving local communities by equipping, empowering and encouraging people to make a difference for Christ.

PHS members gathered most Thursday mornings for weekly praise and worship. The group played host to one of several National Day of Prayer recognitions in the country in May. Millions across the United States used th event as an opportunity to join together in prayers for the nation.

Fatal Vision Simulation

Juniors and seniors got a unique opportunity to participate in the Fatal Vision Driving Course, a program offered by the Pikeville City Police Department and Pikeville City Fire Department.

One of many pre-Prom activities aimed at the prevention of alcohol and substance use by teens, this activity is designed to show teenagers first-hand the effects alcohol has on their ability to drive.

Students wear special fatal vision goggles that simulate the effects of alcohol or drug impairment while they operate a golf cart through an obstacle course that simulates driving on a highway.

Battle of the Classes

Mock Olympics was sooo much fun! Activities like this are what make school a fun place to be," shared one PHS student.

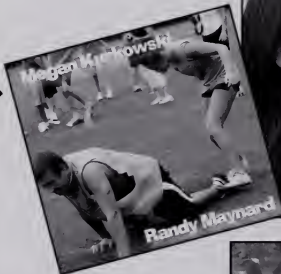

Prior to the beginning of the class competitions, the Mr. Homecoming Court was presented and the 2009 king, Michael Walz, was crowned. Classes then battled it out on the turf in seven competitions: wheel barrow race, pyramid build, dizzy lizzy, amoeba race, life saver pass, pyramid build, and the three-legged race. The junior class captured first place, seventh grade second, and the seniors third.

SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS

When Adam takes Milly as his young bride in the 1850s Oregon wilderness, his six brothers decide they want wives of their own. To help - and to ensure the success of her own marriage - Milly takes it upon herself to civilize her six rowdy brothers-in-law. But her plans backfire when the brothers, in their enthusiasm, kidnap six women from a neighboring town to be their brides.

Milly must help the bevy of beautiful girls endure the long winter until their fathers arrive in the spring for a mass shotgun wedding of the 12 young lovers.

Bursting with the rambunctious energy of the original film, "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" is all boisterous fun and romance that harkens back to the Glory Days of the movie musical.

Before the season began, Pikeville volleyball was a real contender to take the region. Three returning seniors, along with other experienced members, were ready to shine.

Season highlights included playing in the Food City Summer Slam and the Bath County Invitational All 'A.' Following district play, three girls were named to the All District Team: Jessica Casebolt, Sierra Little, and Madi Shull. Advancing to the regional tournament for the second year in a row energized the girls as they prepared for tournament play.

Sierra Little was named to the All Regional Tournament team for the second year in a row, the first player in PHS history to do so.

The girls played hard, won big, and grew close as a team. Their record spoke volumes: overall 17 - 13 - 2; region 14-11; and district 4-1.

PIKEVILLE Football WE'RE BACK!

Expectations ran high as the 2009 season began with first year coach Ben Howard. Pikeville played a brutal schedule, which included teams like Covington Holy Cross, Boyle County, Prestonsburg, Belfry, and Sheldon Clark.

However, driven by passion, desire, and commitment, the Panthers advanced to the second round of play-offs where they played tough against Harlan, only to fall 21-14. The team finished with a 6-6 record.

In the Spirit of Tigger...

This young team consisted of members in 6th-9th grade who spent the 2009-2010 school year supporting both jr. high and high school teams at various home athletic contests. They proudly cheered on the Maroon and White to many exciting victories.

In competition themselves, our girls were UCA Summer Camp Champions, UCA Bluegrass Region Game Day Champions in three events, Smoky Mt. Christmas Champions, and the UCA National 3rd Runner Up in the prestigious Large Jr. High Division. Also, participating in high school level competition; the Panther girls were 59th District KAPOS Tournament Champions, 59th District Super Large Varsity Champions, and 15th Regional At Large Super Large Varsity Champions. At the state finals against the teams of some of the largest high schools in the state, our squad placed 8th overall.

TAKING THE TRIPLE CROWN TITLE

The perfect way to describe the 2009-10 season for the boys' varsity squad was "success against all odds." From the beginning, the team was plagued by injury, low numbers at camp, stunting challenges, and changing roles. It should be said that this team was able to do so much with so little.

Their accomplishments included: UCA Bluegrass Regional 2nd runner up, 6th place at UCA Nationals, 2010 Kapos State Champions, and 2010 District Tournament Champions.

As for the Kapos State Competition, this was the third State title the girls brought home. Mrs. Stone, the squad's sponsor, felt that the girls came together and defeated all the obstacles they were faced with.

The team's outstanding performances brought back the excitement for the upcoming year.

What a Show They Put On!

Panthers a Member of the State Final Four

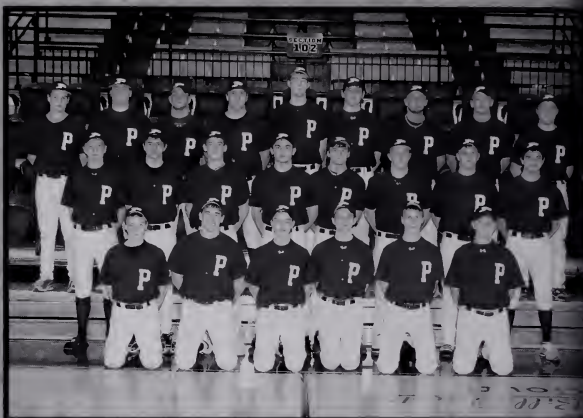

The season began on February 15 with practice and ended on Friday, June 18 with a stellar performance in the state semifinal round at Applebee's Park. Pikeville finished the season with a 26-11 record and advanced farther than any other Panther team in history.

The story began when the Panthers captured the District title after defeating Shelby Valley 11-0 and East Ridge 6-1. Layne Cecil, Jacob Hamilton, and Gavin Miller were named to the all-tournament team.

They then walked away with the Region title after thumping Pike Central 7-3, Lawrence County 12-5, and Belfry 10-0. Layne Cecil, Scott McDonald, and Gavin Miller were named to the all-tournament team and Jacob Hamilton was the tournament MVP.

A trip to the KHSAA Baseball State Tournament at Applebee's Park was the prize. What a show the Panthers put on! In the first round against Perry Central the boys of summer came away with an 8-7 victory. Two nights later in the quarterfinals they defeated Greenup County 10-0 in six innings.

What a dream season! The Panthers met up with Louisville Butler in the semifinals. Everyone in the stands could feel the electricity. However, in the end Pikeville fell short 3-2. Gavin Miller and Steven Layne were named to the all-tournament team. But what a place to close out the season!

Lady Panthers Finish Runner-up in 15th Region Tournament Play

The Lady Panther softball team had a great year finishing as the 15th Region All "A" champions, regional runner-up, and district runner-up.

59th District Tournament play began with a thrilling opening round game when the Lady Panthers beat Shelby Valley 8-7. The second night the team fell to East Ridge 12 - 0.

However, the girls came back with an 8-6 win over Paintsville in the first round of the 15th Region Tournament.

In the semi finals they knocked off South Floyd 6-2. But they couldn't seem to catch a break against Lawrence County the next day and fell 10-0 to the Lady Dawgs. The Lady Panthers finished 16-21 on the season.

"I'm so proud of these girls," Coach Nikki Cole said. " We had a lot of ups and downs, but I'm proud of how they finished the year. They never gave up or stopped trying."

Emily Hall, Aileah Bartley and Lindsey Isner were named to the 15th Region All-Tournament team.

The Tradition Begins

"We grew as football players, a football team, and individuals," explained first year coach Shane Hensley. "And I enjoyed working with such a great coaching staff as well, all of who played football at Pikeville and were familiar with the rich tradition of Panther football."

The junior high Panthers swept Shelby Valley 32-24 in triple overtime for a sweet victory in the last regular season game. They defeated East Ridge and Pike Central 24-6 in the play-offs, but fell to Belfry 32-0 on a rainy, muddy night.

"Everyone, players and coaches alike, were proud to lift high the second place trophy from the Pike County Junior High Tournament," Coach Hensley added.

Student Technology Leadership Program (STLP) is a project-based learning program that empowers students in all grade levels to use technology to learn and achieve.

Throughout the year students worked on various projects that showcased their talents. The culminating event was the State competition on May 11 at the Lexington Convention Center.

More than 3,500 students from 84 school districts and 303 schools were represented. Some of the best STLP projects in the state were on display for parents and the public to view. Students brought digital music, video, writing, digital citizenship, animation, and art products to the event and competed in many areas of technology during live demonstrations and presentations.

Six Pikeville Independent students advanced to state competition in the online products categories. The products were submitted online and virtually judged by educators and experts across the commonwealth.

Eighth grader Braeden McNulty won first place in Digital Storytelling - "Through My Eyes." Other students advancing to State included sixth grader Alycea Kendrick - digital photography, Atticus Sander, Denton Heffington, Matthew Walz, and Jerry Green - digital video (public service announcement), and Aaron Asbury and Weston Rogers, both in technical writing.

(top) Presenting a project at the STLP Conference at the Expo Center were Emaly Slone, Ryan Hall, Braeden McNulty, Aaron Asbury, Patrick Cordero, and Benaiah Stumpf.

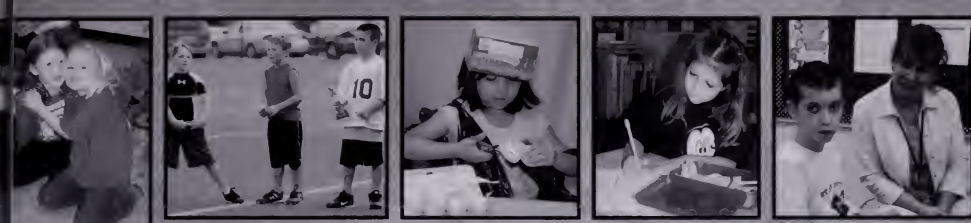

Several STLP students participated in the Cedar Coal Fair Project.

A special graduation ceremony on Tuesday, May 25 gave 17 preschoolers a time to shine. They entertained their families through music and song as they shared what they had learned throughout the school year.

Dancing to favorite nursery rhymes, counting by tens, reciting the five vowels and then their ABC's preceded the presentation of diplomas.

Pikeville AAU Advanced

For the first time, a Pikeville Elementary cheer squad executed squad back handsprings, as well as performed six advanced corner passes. It isn't often a squad this young performs tumbling at the level of difficulty our Panther team exhibited in 2009-2010.

They won first place in the Holiday Classic, Smokey Mountain Christmas Competition, and the Tri-State Cheer Championships. At this last event, hosted at Greenup Co. HS, the Panther All Girl Advanced Team also won the Overall Tumbling Award.

"I am a teacher! What I do and say are being absorbed by young minds who will echo these images across the ages. My lessons will be immortal, affecting people yet unborn, people I will never see or know. The future of the world is in my classroom today, a future with the potential for good or bad. The pliable minds of tomorrow's leaders will be molded either artistically or grotesquely by what I do.

Several future presidents are learning from me today, so are the great writers of the next decades, and so are all the so-called ordinary people who will make the decisions in a democracy.

Only a teacher? Thank God I have a calling to the greatest profession of all! I must be diligent everyday lest I lose one fragile opportunity to improve tomorrow."

We could not be more proud of the man you have grown to be. Choose wisely, son. You are the choices that you make.
